P.C.

1. Heard. This writ petition is directed against the order dated 25.7.2005 by which the amendment application filed by the plaintiff has been allowed by the lower court. On going through the application it is noticed that the amendment is formal one and it will not change the nature of the suit. It is equally necessary for deciding the controversy between the parties and to avoid the multiplicity of litigation between the parties. I find no merit in the petition. It is accordingly rejected.
